ROOSEVELT'S LATEST ON IMMIGRATION SENATOR CUMMINS FOR LOW RATES

Cummins Calls For Reduction

WASHINGTON, May 6. — Senator Cummins of Iowa made a speech on the tariff bill today in which he vigorously attacked the measure reported from the Finance Committee. Cummins demands a greater reduction in the schedules. Senator Cummins is one of the Republicans who is expected to support the income tax, and he is recognized as one of the leading tariff revisionists. While Governor of Iowa he began the war on the standpatters that finally resulted in the revision plank of the Republican National platform.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR OOKALA FOLK

The old stockholders in Ookala plantation will probably bring in the neighborhood of $300,000, the original owners will receive about $24 a share. The par value of Ookala is $20, and as the shares are now quoted at $21, the old shareholders appear to be doing very well. It is believed that as the returns from the sugar sales come to hand the money will be turned over to the vendors of the plantation.

AMERICA MARU IS ON HER NEW RUN

Toyo Kisen Kaisha Sends Pathfinder To Mexico

The America Maru, the first of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liners slated for the South American run, arrived this morning from Yokohama and anchored off port at 7 o'clock. As she brought no passengers nor freight for this port, she remained off port in order to escape paying wharfage. Contrary to expectation, she is not taking any Japanese immigrants to Mexico this trip. It was generally understood here that she would bring a large number of Japanese laborers to work in Mexico, Peru and Chili, but when she arrived this morning the officials of the local immigration station found that their services were not required to examine her.

LUAU A FEATURE OF CONVENTION

Old-Time Custom Will Be Revived By Kawaiahao

SUNDAY SCHOOLS WILL TAKE PART IN OPEN-AIR FEAST

Practice Was Abandoned Many Years Ago, But Will Be Revived This Year—Plans Now Being Made.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the members of the Kawaiahao Church to celebrate the annual convention of the different Sunday Schools on this island, which takes place in June, this year. The feature of the occasion will be the Sunday School exhibitions, to be followed by a Hawaiian luau.

It was the custom for many years to have a grand luau on the grounds of the Kawaiahao Church, after the Sunday school exhibition. This was done to help feed those who came from the outside districts. In order to carry out the plans properly, each Sunday School contributed towards the luau fund. The contributions, as they came in, were carefully examined.

LOST LASSIE COULD NOT SPEAK HAOLE

Samaritans Helpless Till Bluecoat Came Along

Bareheaded and barefooted, and crying as though her baby heart were breaking, a little Hawaiian girl wandered up the middle of Fort street this morning. The heart-rending shrieks told of a child lost, and a dozen sympathetic women rushed out to comfort the little one.

But the baby girl could speak no English, and the sound of people talking to her in a strange tongue only increased her terror. Helplessly the would-be Samaritans stood about, longingly looking up and down the street for some one who could speak the language of the Kamehamehas.

Finally a big Hawaiian policeman hove in sight. The blue coat and brass buttons did not look very reassuring to the forlorn lassie, but the big man in uniform spoke Hawaiian and soon the shrieks became half-strangled sobs. Hand in hand the strange pair—six-foot policeman and two-foot baby girl—started in search of the missing parents.

THE COMMISSIONS OF J. J. MIEHLSTEIN

He Has Only Three But May Be Able To Get Through

The most commissioned official of the city and county is J. J. Miehlestein, lately appointed Plumbing Inspector by Mayor Fern. He not only holds his official credentials from the county authorities, but he will go about his business armed with Territorial commissions as well.

The late Legislature passed a bill turning over the inspection of plumbing and of buildings to the city and county. This necessitated the appointment, by the mayor, of a Building and Plumbing Inspector. Plumbing Inspector Venhuizen was legislated out of a job.

After Miehlestein had been duly commissioned by the city and county, the Mayor's advisors bethought them of the fact that there might be a few overlapping laws that would raise "hobb" were there no Territorial officials to inspect buildings and examine plumbing.

KALIHI RECEIVING STATION HOMELESS?

Lease On Property Now Occupied Has Expired

PRESIDENT OF BOARD OF HEALTH SEEKING RENEWAL

Institution Has Been Moved Thrice and Another Change Is Not Considered Wise—Land Belongs to S. M. Damon.

Secretary Mott-Smith is concluding the negotiations with S. M. Damon for a renewal of the lease of the land now occupied by the Kalihi Receiving Station. The lease has expired and it has been decided that it would be better for the present to get a renewal of the lease than to move the Station. Mr. Mott-Smith stated that he hoped to be able to get a long-time lease, and that the Government would prefer this to getting a piece of land in fee simple for the Kalihi Receiving Station. It has already been necessary to move the station three times, and as the city grows out toward it, it will undoubtedly be necessary to make another change. This makes it inadvisable to make another change. (Continued on Page 6)

TWO JUDGES BUT ONLY ONE COURT

Dole and Woodruff Will Divide Labors On Bench

The statement made by the morning paper that the United States Court will be shy one clerk on account of the fact that Congress failed to make an appropriation for a salary of a clerk for the second judge is only partially correct. It is true that there will not be a second clerk, but it was not intended that there should be, for the reason that, although there are to be two judges, there will be only one court. The new law provides that only one judge shall sit at a time. So when one judge is on the bench, the other can be engaged in other work. Consequently no extra clerk is needed.

PRISON DOORSSWING OUT FOR C. AHRENS

Governor Gives German Chance To Return Home Tomorrow

The prison doors are to swing open for C. Ahrens, and he will be given an opportunity tomorrow, after nearly three years spent behind the grim walls of the Oahu jail, to put foot once more on the deck of a vessel and to feel again beneath him the heave of the sea.

Ahrens has not yet been pardoned, nor has his sentence expired, but he is to be released, and his pardon will be signed when the Governor returns to Honolulu—unless perhaps Governor Frear has signed a pardon at Hilo for the man.

The prisoner was convicted nearly three years ago of having set fire to a vessel in the harbor, and was sent up for three years on the charge of malicious burning. Recently the German Consul has interested himself in the matter and petitioned the Government to release the man in time so that he might sail for his native country on the German vessel that leaves Honolulu for Germany tomorrow. The Governor assented, and sent a wireless message to Secretary Mott-Smith, directing that Ahrens be released. It might be a year before another vessel would sail from Honolulu for Germany, and Ahrens might not get a chance for a long time to return home were he not to be turned loose now. His sentence does not expire until July 21.

Charles Kia was fined four dollars this morning by Judge Andrade. It appears that C. K. has an abnormal thirst that cannot be assuaged by aqua pura—booze is the only remedy, according to Kia.

WAR TAX A BURDEN, SAYS OSAKA EDITOR

"The special war tax is a burden to the subjects of His Imperial Majesty, the Mikado of Japan. The people have demanded the government to discontinue the collection of war tax, but as yet nothing has been done."

The above statement was made today by Koji Murakami, editor of "The Osaka Mainichi Shimbun," of Osaka, Japan. He is a through passenger on the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner America Maru, which arrived this morning from the Orient.

When approached this forenoon by the Bulletin men he at first declined to talk for publication, but as the conversation proceeded he became more communicative.

He, with some hesitancy, stated that the people in Japan today are still feeling the burden of the special war tax. To discontinue the collection of war tax, he said, would, on

Roosevelt Writes On Japanese

NEW YORK, May 6. — The Outlook issued today contains an article on the immigration question. Mr. Roosevelt believes in the restriction of immigration from the Orient and says that if Japan is unable to restrict the emigration of its people to this country, the United States must protect itself. The article obviously gives the views which Roosevelt carried out so far as he was able while dealing with the Japanese problem opened up by the San Francisco school question.
